VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1867. NO. 48.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN THE WEST.

The elections to come off on the 8th. of October in Pennsylvania and Ohio are the straws that show which way the wind blows, either for or against the supremacy of the radical cause, with its swarthy load of negro government over a white people, and its rich argosy of national banks, national debt and national taxation. These elections are, therefore, watched with an anxiety all the more keen because it is based upon the two most natural and most potent instincts—self-pride and self interest. Shall the party be permitted to obtain a renewed lease of power which would hand over ten States of the Union to the government of an ignorant and semi-brutalized race, and would establish social and political equality with that race in the Northern States, in violation of the instincts of our people?—a party which has run the country to the verge of ruin by its extravagance and corruption, and boldly justifies its past actions, while at the same time, on the eve of an election, it sneakingly cants about 'retrenchment and reform" as its conduct for the future? These are the questions which agitate the public mind, not only in the West, where these issues are to be immediately tried, but all over the country.

And how stands popular sentiment upon these issues in Pennsylvania and Ohio?—From close observation of the canvass in both of these States we are satisfied that a marvellous reaction is taking place. Distrust of the radical leaders and disgust of negro suffrage appear to have taken possession of the rank and file of the party, and thus we find apathy prevailing to-day where enthusiasm existed a year ago. All the discipline, the organization and the money so lavishly expended, have failed to divert the thoughts of the people from the prominent questions with which the radical party is saddled—negro supremacy and a thoroughly rotten system of finance that is robbing the public in order to enrich the politicians and capitalists. Pondering upon these subjects the quondam supporters of the radical ticket hesitate to go into the campaign with the vim that made them the most earnest supporters of the party during the war. They are callous to the inspiration of republican documents, and they are disposed to stay at home when called upon to attend radical meetings and listen to the eloquence of the stump speakers. In many counties of Ohio radical meetings have been poorly attended—hardly a corporal's guard to cheer Ben Wade and John A. Logan; while upon the same ground democratic speakers inveighing against the financial system of the government and negro suffrage have had audiences by the thousand. That there is a large republican vote balancing between the two tickets even the republican leaders do not deny, and the shrewdest calculator among them will not venture upon a prediction that the State is not in imminent danger of being lost to them, despite their overwhelming majority of thirty-eight thousand a year ago. Were we to touch upon the probabilities we would say that the radicals in Ohio will elect their candidate for Governor, General Hayes, upon his personal and military record; that they will lose their majority in the Legislature, which has the election of a United States Senator in the place of Ben Wade; and that they will possibly fail to elect their candidate for Congress in the second district to fill the seat vacated by General Hayes.—Should they succeed, however, it will be by a reduced majority, tantamount to a defeat, which may be regarded as the precursor of a total discomfiture in the next election.

In Pennsylvania, where the election takes place on the same day, there are no more prominent offices to be filled than that of Judge of the Supreme Court and the county officers. There is, therefore, some indifference as to the result; but it is significant of the weakness of the radical party that in framing their platform at the State Convention they shirked negro suffrage altogether. For this they are denounced as mean and cowardly by the ultra portion of their own party and scoffed at by their opponents. If it was good and wise to enfranchise the black men in the ten Southern States, where they exist to the number of nearly four millions, why was it not so in Pennsylvania, where they number but a few thousands, and can exercise no controlling influence? It was because the radical platform in Pennsylvania was so shaky that they dare not put the rotten plank of negro suffrage into it. Looking over these battle fields, then, with their wavering hosts of combatants, we see, through the clouds and mists of political conflicts, a great re-action going on—greater, in fact, than in Maine and California,—a re action that in ten days from now may assume the form of a revolution, may affix the handwriting upon the wall that is to doom radicalism, with all its offensive aggression, its limitless corruption, its Puritanism, sumptuary laws, cant and demoralization, to eternal perdition.—New York Herald.

FORT PILLOW AFFAIR—A CARD FROM GEN. N. B. FORREST.

To the Editor of the New York Times:

A correspondent of the Times, whose letter was published on the 25th ultimo, says:

"At the time of the capture of Fort Pillow by the rebel General Forrest, and the massacre of its entire garrison, General (then Colonel) Lawrence was in command of Fort Columbus, a point on the Mississippi river above Fort Pillow. General Forrest, flushed with his victory and his murders, marched from Fort Pillow directly on Fort Columbus, notified Colonel Lawrence that the Commander and garrison of Fort Pillow had been massacred, informed him that he commanded 10,000 troops and knew that he (Lawrence) had only 1,000, and ordered him to surrender in one hour's time or he and his command should share the fate which had been visited on the garrison at Fort Pillow."

I have hitherto borne in silence these outrageous assaults upon my character as a man and a soldier: but a decent regard for my own reputation, and a sense of duty to the brave gentlemen who fought under me during the late war, will not permit me to remain silent any longer. I must, therefore, ask you to be pleased to allow me to say, through the columns of the Times, that the charges made against me by your correspondent are utterly false, and that their falsity can be easily demonstrated by proof which is within easy reach.

The official report of the United States officer commanding at Fort Pillow, and the testimony reported by the Congressional Investigating Committee, of which Vice-President Wade was Chairman, show that the garrison consisted of only about 580 officers and men. Other proofs, which I can produce at any time, show that I captured, and can account for, more than 300 of these—sixty five of them, who were badly wounded, having been delivered by me to the officer commanding a United States gunboat in the vicinity of the fort, and about 250, (an official descriptive list of whom is now in this city in the possession of General Thomas Jordan) having been turned over by me to General Polk, at Demopolis, Ala. Of these captured men ninety were negro soldiers. Nor were the rest of the garrison all killed; for many of them effected their escape, while others were drowned in the attempt. It will thus be seen that the proportion of killed was not greater than is usual in the case of so severe a fight, accompanied by a desperate assault and defence.

These facts are known to the Government of the United States and acquit me, not only in the opinion of the President, Mr. Stanton and Judge Holt, but in that of Congress, of any violation of the rules of civilized warfare. Otherwise I would have been long ago arrested and tried upon that charge. For my own part, conscious of my innocence, and knowing perfectly well that I have always waged war with the strictest regard to the usages of civilized nations, I have never shunned any investigation to which the Executive or Congress might subject my military conduct.

As to the absurd charge that I marched against Columbus with 10,000 men and demanded its surrender with the threat that I would, in the event of refusal, "massacre" its garrison, I have only to say that I never was, during the war, within 40 miles of Columbus, after its evacuation by the Confederates in 1862; and that the only troops which approached it, at the time referred to, was a scouting party of less than 100 men; and that the official report of General Lawrence himself utterly disproves your correspondent's statements. N. B. FORREST.

WM. E. BELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1867.

PERSECUTION OF UNION OR LOYAL MEN.

We had supposed that the infamous and notoriously false charge, so repeatedly made and so signally refuted, "that Union men in North Carolina were persecuted for opinion's sake," had been squelched, and that respectable people had ceased to credit it, either North or South. We have repeatedly denied the charge, and, in every instance where it was possible to investigate the charge, have found it to be invariably untrue.

This charge was repeated in the late Legislature of this State by one or more Western "loyal" members. The Legislature instructed a committee to inquire into the facts, giving it power to send for persons and papers, in order to the punishment of the guilty parties, and the authors of the charge, who were examined, so shamefully broke down and confessed their error, that we hoped it would be never again repeated.

We speak advisedly, when we say, that the Conservative population of North Carolina are almost, if not entirely, unanimous, in their opposition to the persecution of any class of men, Union men or others, white or black, for Union sentiments or any other political opinions. There is equal opposition among them to anything that has the semblance of injustice or unkindness towards our colored population. This known feeling prompted the last Conservative Legislature to pass a law granting universal amnesty to all persons who had, during the war, on either side, committed crimes against the laws of North Carolina, under real or assumed Federal or Confederate authority. Our Conservative people have striven to promote concord and harmony among all classes of our people, while they have been assailed constantly by a class of men who presume to call themselves loyalists and Union men, but who have been known to be among the first and fiercest promoters of the "rebellion."

Notwithstanding these patent facts, these charges are reiterated afresh in the North on the eve of every election,—thus exciting, by unfounded representations against the South, the hatred and revenge of the Northern people. Northern men, and even military officers stationed in our midst, have become embittered against us, and been induced to repeat statements to our injury, known by our people to be unfounded, upon the strength of false charges made against us, coming from prejudiced men or women. Ex parte statements, which are perfectly capable of refutation, have been made the foundation of severe reflections or action against our people.

We were opposed to the removal of Gen. Sickles, as District Commander from this District, for the reason that his long stay with us had enabled him to learn much more of the real state of things, than any stranger could possibly know. We were, therefore, surprised to see the following statement, reported to have been made by him, at a Radical meeting held in Philadelphia, on the evening of the 27th. ult. It is as follows:

"In Caswell County, N. C., during the war, a loyal student, while escaping from the enemy's lines to ours, where he afterwards did good service, took without leave, one night, a piece of bacon for his subsistence on the march. When he returned home after the war was supposed to be over, he was arrested, tried on a charge of burglary, and sentenced to be hung and pay the costs. [Laughter and cheering.] While he was awaiting his trial and pending the execution of his sentence, the prisoner was chained inside an iron cage, and kept there for a year, without a blanket even in winter. His case was undergoing investigation, when the Governor of North Carolina, in exercise of the power granted to him by the Military Commander, pardoned the man.—The costs not having been paid, on account of poverty, he was confined for some time afterwards in the same place until released by military authority. Here is an illustration of what must have been the fate of loyal refugees, if the government had not afforded them military protection."

It is not proper to hold any man responsible for what is contained in a reported speech, until he acknowledges its correctness. We, therefore, simply design to correct the errors in the above statement. It is professedly in that part of Gen. Sickles' speech, in which he attempts to show the necessity of military rule in the South, in order to the protection of refugees and Union men. It is a remarkable circumstance, which we hope the reader will note, that, after a residence in this Military District by Gen. Sickles of one or more years, but one single case to prove his position, as having occurred in North Carolina, could be produced. In that solitary case, our information enables us to correct him very materially.

In the first place, so far as we can learn, there is no evidence that this man, Johnson, was a "loyal student," or that he was a loyal man, any way. Nor is there any reliable evidence that the man committed the burglary, while "making his escape to the Federal lines." The evidence is, that he was a notoriously bad young man,—that his conduct was any thing else but that of "a loyal student." The evidence is, that while he was "lying about loose," as the saying is, he feloniously, and with bad intent, broke into the dwelling house of a quiet and unoffending family, and stole money and bacon and perhaps other articles—that an afterthought seized him, on learning that he was known, and would be prosecuted according to law, and he became a so-called Union man and fled into the Federal lines. This is not a solitary case, but one of many, in which such fellows professed to be soon converted to the Federal cause.

This man Johnson returned to Caswell after the war, and his crime of burglary becoming known to the Solicitor for that Circuit, Thomas Settle, Esq., as in duty bound his case was laid before the Grand Jury, a true bill was found and he was fairly tried, defended by able counsel, and convicted by a jury of twelve of his fellow-citizens, and sentenced by the Judge, according to the laws of the State, to be hung. The reporter, or Gen. Sickles, is mistaken in alleging that he was condemned to be hung for stealing a piece of bacon, and to pay the costs. Never before was it heard in North Carolina, that a man was condemned to be hung for stealing a piece of bacon—his crime was burglary. Nor was it ever known before that any criminal, however high his offence, was condemned to be hung and also to pay the costs. The criminal was re-committed to await his execution. The fact that he was ironed and put into an iron cage, in the prison, we know nothing about, but, if true, it ought to satisfy every body that Johnson was known to be a desperate character—otherwise such caution, to hold him fast, would have never been resorted to. Pending his imprisonment, his case was laid before Gov. Worth by his counsel, and citizens of the County, praying his pardon for various reasons. It was urged that he admitted his guilt, but would leave the State. The urgency of the appeal led the Governor to enquire if he was able to pay the costs; he was told that they thought he was. In view, therefore, of the character of the times in which the crime was committed, the urgency of the people of Caswell for his pardon, and the assurance that he would leave the State, the Governor issued his pardon, but, in consideration of the confession of guilt and his ability to pay, the Governor ordered that he should pay the costs. Failing to pay, he was kept in prison, until the military and his counsel brought the matter to the notice of the Governor, when, it being ascertained he was not able to pay costs, the Governor at once ordered his discharge.

We can find no evidence, whatever, that the prosecution, or conviction, or punishment had any, the slightest, to do with his having been a loyal man and escaped to the Federal lines. So far from this, the evidence is that the criminal himself furnished the only evidence of this, which he could not prove, in that he stated to the military officer, who went to the prison to see him, that he believed that he was arrested and prosecuted by Capt. Thomas Settle, the Solicitor, because he, Johnson, had refused to join Capt. Settle's Company for the Confederate service, and afterwards went into the Federal army. Never was there a more unfounded statement. Mr. Settle is known to be a strict prosecuting officer, but his kindness of heart, humanity and justice, as well as his Unionism since the war, are better known throughout the State. Mr. Settle has constantly identified himself with the opposers of the war, from 1863 to the present time, and is now and has been an active leader in the Republican party. No man will charge him with persecuting any man for his Union principles.

THE SINKING SHIP.

The "Leaguers" are deserting the Radical ship in every direction. We hear of numerous cases in this county. Many well meaning men, through false and insidious representations, have been, at various times, deluded and inveigled into these associations. The action of the Jacobin Convention, in this city, has opened the eyes of many of these, and they are indignantly repudiating any farther affiliation with the party which it represents.

It is a source both of satisfaction and of regret that the late Radical Convention was held. Of regret, that any set of men in the South should have exhibited the animus or proclaimed the purposes, that marked the deliberations of that atrocious assemblage. Of regret, that these men were incapable of rising above mean and malignant passions and making a patriotic effort to unite all our fellow citizens in the work of reconstruction. Had they adopted the resolutions that were reported by the committee, obnoxious as they were, in some respects, to the feelings of the large majority of our white fellow-citizens, there would have been no organized movement in hostility to them or their movement. Had they given the solemn assurance that they contemplated nothing beyond the strict exactions of the Congressional Acts,—that, so far from meditating, they disapproved, the idea of additional penalties and disabilities,—there would have been no discord, no jarring, no bad feeling, in working out the required process of Reconstruction.

Our satisfaction springs from the fact that, inasmuch as these plotters of mischief, these real and only obstructionists, could not, in their very nature, rise to the little height of divesting themselves of prejudice, hate and greed, they had not penetration enough to conceal their designs. We now know exactly where to find them. The people can locate them precisely. They are receiving, day by day, fresh evidences of the popular odium they have incurred. The moderate Republicans have repudiated them and their nefarious schemes,—good men, everywhere, are organizing and combining to defeat them,—and, if we are not greatly mistaken in the indications of the times, they will not be able to herd the colored men to their support. It was the aim and object of their manœuvering to concentrate the negroes in their interests, in order that they might get the spoils. The better class of that race, however, who were born and raised in North Carolina, have imbibed too much of its atmosphere of law-loving order and moderation, we trust, to be lured into extreme and vindictive measures, which, with the most ordinary discernment, they must see, will result in their serious injury, if not ruin.

Let us press on, fellow-citizens of all shades of former opinion, and of all classes! We can comply with what is required of us, and still defeat the wicked aims of these selfish demagogues.

STATE NEWS.

——The Wilmington Daily Journal entered upon the seventeenth year of its existence on Monday. Long life to it!

——We regret to learn that Gen. Clingman, while riding in a hack, in the city of New York, a few days ago, was struck in the eye by the driver's whip-lash, and it is feared he will lose the sight of the eye entirely. In fact, it is reported that the eyeball was completely cut out.

——An experiment, testing the merits of the new Fire Extinguisher, was made in Wilmington, on Saturday. It was every way successful. The officials of the several Railroad Companies were among the spectators, and expressed the highest satisfaction at the result of the experiment.

——McDonald, the "Union Leaguer," who shot the two negroes at Waynesville, Haywood Co., a few weeks ago, escaped from the guard at Morganton and is now at large. A fight occurred among the soldiers who were sent to recapture him, when the Corporal was shot by one of the men under his command, and died in two hours.

——We learn, from the Ashville News and Farmer, that, at a meeting of the Directors of the Western N. C. R. R., on Friday last, it was decided to let out to contractors the work on the east side of the French Broad branch as soon as the right of way was obtained from the land holders on that line, and Maj. Wilson and Mr. N. Kelsey were instructed to visit the people on that line and secure the right of way. The News also says:

"It was decided to put the mountain section, on the Morganton line, under contract at once. The Board also ordered the President to open the books for subscription on the Ducktown extension, with a view to putting that line also under contract.

The President of the Road, Col. S. McD. Tate, was unavoidably absent, not having returned from the North, where he has been for some weeks negotiating the disposal of the Bonds for the building of the road.

The work is now fairly under way, and we hope nothing will interfere with its steady progress. We have but little room for remarks, but we cannot refrain from calling on our Merchants and all who receive freight from the North, to patronize that part of our road to Morganton, which is completed. In that way they can help the completion of the road."

——Another Radical outrage is reported from Waynesville, Haywood County. It appears that the Union League had been holding their midnight orgies in the Methodist Church of that village—although the property belonged to the M. E. Church, South,—and had so abused the church that the congregation was compelled to notify the League that the building could not be used again for that purpose. This so exasperated that law-abiding (!) body, that a few nights afterwards they broke into the building, broke up the Melodeon, threw it into the road, and did much other mischief to the furniture.

——The Standard, of this City, having indulged in much glorification over the late Radical meeting at Grassy Creek, Union Co., where the officers of the law were resisted and a negro culprit rescued by the "Leaguers," and having exclaimed "the Republicans of Union are on the platform," the Charlotte News says:

"You are right, Mr. Holden. Mr. Eli Hinson, the Marshal, and eight of the Leaguers, are now on a broad good platform! We saw them put there—hope they'll stick to it.

The Sheriff keeps the key to their platform, which happens to be the second story of the Jail in this city.

Harmonious! Yes, sir; it was a harmonious meeting, but the League had a little fun in rescuing one of their members, then on his way to the platform, under escort of the Sheriff of Union.

There is another platform that these men will come to yet, but the Sheriff will be there too, to help them off."

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

SMITHFIELD, N. C., Sept. 30th, 1867.

MESSRS. PELL AND GALES,—After having bought our cassimeres at Charlotte, our jeans and kerseys at Salem, our shoes at Thomasville, and our brown domestics at Fayetteville, we to-day start North to buy many other articles of merchandise that might be manufactured and sold at home. We can really do more for our material good, as a people, by manufacturing our own goods and raising our own supplies, than any other way that we can conceive of.

Our Manufacturers should advertise their goods and put them at as low prices as the same goods can be bought any where, and then our merchants should buy them, and the people, who are what we class consumers, should patronise and use them.

Our crops are poor, very poor; nearly all the corn crops on bottom lands were destroyed by freshets in the early summer. Cotton was badly damaged by the wet weather, and now the army worm by the million is eating it up—the damage by them is great. The destruction by the worm is as damaging, I think, as a heavy frost would have been on the 20th September. In this opinion we are sustained by the best and most observing farmers. The cotton crop of this county (Johnston) may be safely put down as damaged one half, by the excessive rains in the summer and the worm now.

Registration has closed for this county. All is quiet and peace. Whites in a majority; don't know how much.

Very Respectfully,
W. H. AVERA,
Of the firm of AVERA & SANDERS.

E. J. HALE & SON OF NEW YORK.—No Southern man ought to go to New York without calling on E. J. Hale & Son, 16 Murray street, (formerly publishers of the Fayetteville Observer.) If he does not want to buy Books or Stationery, he can find Southern newspapers at their store, and will meet a cordial welcome. In addition to selling books, stationery, &c., the Messrs. Hale publish books. Being thoroughly acquainted with their business, they can sell on as reasonable terms as any house in New York. We are gratified to learn that their business is increasing. We hope the managers of Southern Schools will give the publications of E. J. Hale & Son a trial.—Western Democrat.

PROSPECTS IN OHIO.—We have good authority for stating that the Hon. Benjamin F. Wade, while at Loveland, Clermont county, was heard to state, in response to a query from one of the faithful as to what were the prospects, that "they looked blue—that there was too much apathy prevailing in the Republican party."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

For the Sentinel.

THAT CONVENTION—ITS ORATORS.

(FINIS)

Gov. W. W. Holden.—(Once more—and for the last time)—"I esteem it a hardship that the Congress of the Nation allowed, even for a brief period, these unrepentant rebels to govern the loyal people of this State. I am sorry they did it."

It is very distressing, certainly. These "loyal people" looked for the loaves and fishes last May—and it is a great "hard ship," that they have not had a nibble yet. Indeed it is very hard to bear—and they are very sorry. All kind hearted people pity their sorrows, and could only be comforted by the assurance that their paunches will be filled—by and bye.

"I was so situated during the rebellion—so surrounded by rebels and confederate enemies, that whilst my friends knew, and I felt, I kept all the while burning in my heart the vestal fire of love for Liberty and Union, still, as a matter more or less of moral coercion, I was obliged to take a certain position against the National Government. No man dared stay here and call himself a Union man."

Undoubtedly this "bold" man, with "iron in his blood," who bravely "defies, sir, politically morally and personally," the whole generation of "unrepentant copperhead rebels, traitors, secessionists," and all other ragamuffins and tatterdemalions, was "more or less under moral coercion"—scared, as you may say—when he penned the following paragraphs of his address to the people of Wake, when, by a similar "moral coercion"—more or less—he was "obliged" to be a candidate for a seat in that bad Convention that took us all out the "glorious Union:" "The proclamation of Mr. Lincoln, calling for troops to make war upon the Southern States, dissolved the Union, so far as we are concerned, and summoned every true Southern man to arms." * * *

"If elected to the Convention I will vote to disconnect North Carolina from the Federal Union, and I will also vote to make North Carolina one of the Confederate States."—(Moral coercion, indeed!) There was also "more or less" (rayther more than less) "of moral coercion" which "obliged" him to write with that immortal pen in such a "bold" chirography the name of W. W. Holden, on that precious sheepskin, in company with so many other "unrepentant copperhead rebels and traitors," under a Declaration of very naughty import. (Where is that golden pen, now, Mr. "Radical Republican?")

"He declared himself a Union man as long as he dared to do so; then a Conservative; then an unconditional Unionist at the close of the rebellion; and now a Radical Republican." That is not half the story of his inconsistencies, but this is a changing world, and all—old fogies excepted,—do change with it. Some are ashamed of sudden changes, especially for pelf—others are not. Some scorn to change, where "thrift may follow fawning"—others do not. Some are honest in their changes—others are not. Some treat with decency those whom they have betrayed, from mere shame—others are utterly shameless. It is a hard thing to forgive those whom we are conscious of having deeply injured. One moralist says it is impossible. We shall not dispute it. Esau had no friends. He was a very bad man.

Gov. W. W. Holden ended in glory.—"He did not regard the silly talk of the day about Yankees and Niggers! He felt honored when his name was associated with those of the brave soldiers who had saved the republic." (He was a volunteer Captain in Confederate times, and after July 1863, too!) "We were all now one as a nation. Sectionalism had been destroyed forever by the thundering of Federal cannon, and the Nation! the Nation—the Union, now and forever, had been written by the lightnings of five hundred battles on all the arches of the sky!" (Great applause!) Glory, Hallelujah! to say nothing of thunder and lightning! The orator soon after took his seat, and with a white linen pocket handkerchief first affectionately wiped the nose of a colored brother at his side, and then his own.

Then Dr. Powell (from Headquarters in Washington City) reported a plan for the strict military organization of the Republican party of North Carolina. Adopted.

Hon. John Pool reported a Platform—rather a mild one—which, after much rambling discussion, was rejected, and the following more "loyal" substitute adopted:

"Resolved, That the Republican party of North Carolina, on the subject of confiscation, and all other matters appertaining to reconstruction (!) will faithfully adhere to and abide by the reconstruction plan and measures of Congress." Exactly. Confiscation will greatly aid in going back lovingly to the Union; it is so very just, gentle and persuasive; and would so unmistakably indicate the great affection felt for us by the confiscators. When well confiscated we shall all feel so good; and shall cock up our beavers so jauntily as we march on to glory, a la "old John Brown." Our colored brethren in myriads will take the lead on our return to the "paternal mansion," pickin de banjo, each equipped with his greasy bag and battered canteen, and shouting uproariously in old fashioned corn shucking style,

"We are all a gwy-in home"
Where rations never end."

The Saxon element, somewhat subdued indeed, but with an oh-be joyful-ish air, will follow on at a respectful distance, singing through the nose, with what spirit they may, the famous Conventional refrain:—"We are going home! The doors of the paternal mansion are open," &c., &c.

In the discussion about confiscation not a word was said of the justice or the right of the measure. It was only a question of policy—as a rod to drive the timid into the Radical fold.

Not an orator urged obedience to the Constitution, or to any of the laws of the land, either State or Federal, except to those which relate to the Congressional plan of reconstruction. A looker-on could never have learned that we have a Constitution at all—or any other laws but these.—And this is a great national party!—to control the destinies of thirty-six millions of people!

This party, having been duly organized by a plan of regular military subordination and accountability, agreed to assent to whatever the Radical Congress had done or "might, could, would or should" do; applauded General Sheridan for his wonderful civil services; refused to suspend the collection of the State taxes (case vy?); asked Gen. Canby to order an election, as soon as he could, and a Constitutional Convention a little sooner, if possible—pledged themselves to the speedy construction of a Railroad to Duck Town; tendered thanks to their President and other officers, also "to the Messrs. Tucker for the rent of their handsome Hall;" and then—fizzled out.

No wonder the gentlemen in that Convention hung their heads, and felt unmitigated disgust at some of the outpourings of its unworthy members. The colored portion, as a rule, behaved with the greater propriety, as reported in their several speeches. They have no words to eat, They had never been secession leaders. They had never betrayed their friends. They had never been slave-dealers, nor practised cruelties to slaves of their own. They did not come, penitentially, to seek absolution for wrongs they had done, nor bring in their breeches pockets purchased certificates from those whom they had wronged. They had no coward fears for their past offences, and they came not to buy their peace by abject and disgusting humiliations. They could "afford to look down with contempt" on the pale faces around them of those who have so suddenly conceived for them an overwhelming affection. This contempt they felt, and, in some instances, took no pains to conceal. Even on the question of confiscation, in which they may be presumed to have the greater interest, their course was more manly and just than that of some of the contemptible white men who meanly pandered to their supposed desire to walk into lordly estates without the ceremony of paying. These are marked men, and are little to be envied for either their hearts or their brains. Heaven help them! and their coadjutors in the work of ruin! There are thorns planted in their pillows, which no rewards, actual or prospective, can ever remove. Whatever may be in store for poor old North Carolina, their doom is fixed. They may achieve the blushing honors they seek at such awful sacrifice. They may deem them highly ornamental. In their own opinion they may wear them well. But "the slow unmoving finger of scorn" will single them out as State parricides. It will follow them to dishonored graves—to their last sleep! Sleep! Aye, there's the rub. Will not curses on those who betray their country and friends for miserable office—who would doom sixty thousand men, the purest and best in the land, to ruin, that they may rise,—howl around their midnight slumbers, and even pierce the unholy clay that vainly attempts to hide their memories along with their mouldering bones?

We are a conquered people, doubtless; and we may have much sorrow and grief in store. But, Great Father! does it become us to devise the ways and means of torturing each other? Is there not skill enough elsewhere, among the very ingenious and inventive people who rejoice in being our conqueror? Is it necessary that we should invent, in aid of a domestic "Holy Inquisition," new wheels and stretchers, and thumb-screws, to the complex Infernal Machine? Proh pudor!

S.

TWO PICTURES.

During a recent trip through the South I was struck by two incidents which amazed and startled me. Believing this Union was formed by white men for white men, I was astonished to find the prodigious progress made by the negrophilists in entirely changing the current of history, and diverting the government from the object of its institution. The first trial by a negro jury that ever occurred in America took place in May last in the United States Circuit Court in Richmond. The first man ever tried by such a jury was a Union soldier of the Eleventh United States infantry, then on duty there. And as I looked on this veteran in the uniform of his country's defenders—who had risked his life and shed his blood on a hundred fields, arraigned as a criminal before negroes, I asked myself, did this man, and such as he, fight and bleed for four years of terrible war for the purpose of securing these blacks the right to sit in judgment on white people?

The next feature that startled me was at Fort Macon, North Carolina. The fort is garrisoned by blacks, and is used as a place of punishment for convicts. Recently I saw there a negro soldier, driving and ordering eight white men who were prisoners while he made them haul a seine and catch fish for his black comrades and himself.—Some of them were white soldiers, convicted by court martial of petty offences, and some were citizens of the United States sent there by military commissions without trial by jury, without warrant of law and in the exercise of pure arbitrary power.

The civil and military power of the United States, administered by negroes—to control and coerce white men, Union men, loyal citizens, white soldiers! I thought to myself if this thing is done now in Virginia and North Carolina, and the South is held down by negroes, just so will the negrophilists use the negro vote and negro power to hold down Pennsylvania and the North. In an election for President a negro vote in Virginia counts just as much as a white man's vote in Pennsylvania, and the negro vote South is to be used to control the white vote North.

A TRAVELER.

THE DEATH OF THE INNOCENTS.—The New Orleans "Picayune" says: "We believe that the mortality among the children from the prevailing epidemic is wholly unprecedented. Some days a third or more of the deaths from yellow fever are among children of from four to ten years of age. Those from the latter to fifteen or sixteen seem proof against the fever. We are not aware that our doctors have taken any particular note of this."

The International Medical Congress, which has just met at Paris, has decided that cholera is not contagious, but is eminently infectious, like yellow fever, typhus, &c. It originates where numbers of individuals are collected under bad hygienic or climateric conditions. It is transported along great maritime, fluvial, or land ways of communication by the travellers who frequent them. Crowding is the principal cause of cholera, and of almost all epidemics, and ventilation is the best means of preventing and stopping such maladies. To herd them together like beasts is to kill them as a matter of certainty. Individuals in an infected district must therefore be scattered, and themselves and their clothes disinfected as soon as possible.

Positive information has been received here, says a Washington correspondent, that persons in Alabama, pardoned by the late amnesty proclamation, have prepared cases for litigation in the civil courts, to determine their right to register, which right has been refused them by the registrars appointed by General Pope.

The Canton (Ohio) Republican says: "Late Washington letters keep intimating that Mrs. Lincoln is to be married to a gentleman of Canton. We are not posted as to names, and are, therefore, not prepared to say how much credence ought to be given to this tantalizing rumor."

The Memphis Bulletin publishes the business card of "Isham G. Harris, commission merchant, Liverpool, England." Mr. Harris was Governor of Tennessee at the breaking out of the war, and served with most conspicuous gallantry in the cause of the Confederacy in the Western campaigns.

Abe Higgins and another negro were arrested yesterday for stealing a lot of clothes from a woman in south Memphis. Higgins, by way of excuse, said "he belonged to de league, if he did steal de clothes."—Memphis Avalanche.

EARTHQUAKE.—A very sensible shock of an earthquake was felt at Knoxville, Tenn., on Tuesday morning about sunrise. The shock lasted from two to three seconds, and is the third that has been felt in Knoxville the present year.

The Yazoo (Miss.) Banner announces that Dan. Woolridge, a conservative colored man, will be a candidate for Congress in that district.

Admiral Raphael Semmes has withdrawn from the editorial management of the Memphis Bulletin.

The Registration returns from sixty-four counties of the State are reported to foot up as follows:

Blacks,	52,298
Total,	112,578

It will be seen that, in the above, the white majority is 7,982. There are twenty-five counties yet to be heard from,—mostly, we presume, in the Western part of the State,—which will doubtless double the foregoing majority.

GRANVILLE.—The black majority in Granville is 815.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mrs. J. B. Franklin will open, to-day, at her fashionable rooms, over Lougee & Bro's. Tin Establishment, a large and elegant stock of Millinery. The ladies are invited to give her a call.

Labor-Saving Pumps, Agricultural Warehouse, &c: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

Cygnet Chewing Tobacco,—very superior: Pulliam, Jones & Co.

Kader Biggs & Co., Commission Merchants, McPhail's Wharf, Town Point, Norfolk: Special attention paid to the sale of Cotton and all kinds of country produce, &c. Mr. J. J. Biggs, of this firm, will be remembered as a former and excellent citizen of Raleigh. We are pleased to see him at present in the City. His numerous friends will be glad to greet him.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—The Docket of this tribunal is very heavily crowded.—The trial of Bryant for the murder of Wiley Sauls,—a case that excites considerable interest,—has been fixed for to-morrow. The petit juries are made up without distinction of color.

THE CIRCUS presented quite a gorgeous pageant on the streets on yesterday,—bringing "all creation" out of doors. The performance, last evening, was attended by several thousand persons. There will be two exhibitions to day,—in the afternoon and evening.

OUR MERCHANTS are very busy, receiving their unusually large Fall and Winter supplies. Messrs. S. H. & W. J. Young, Fayetteville Street, in addition to our other advertisers heretofore mentioned, are in daily receipt of an elegant and judiciously selected stock. Call to see them.

SHERIFFS.—Since our last notice, the following Sheriffs have settled with the Comptroller and Treasurer, viz: Those of Union, Chatham, Randolph, Brady, Stokes, Moore, Carteret, Warren, Franklin, Lenoir, Robeson, Ashe, Granville, Buncombe, Jackson, Madison and Yancey.

FROST.—We had the first frost of the season on Monday night. We presume that it was too light to do any injury, however. This is the earliest frost, almost, within the memory of the "Oldest Inhabitant." Usually it does not come before the 30th. of October or the 1st. of November.

THE LATE HON. R. M. SAUNDERS.—A meeting of the members of the Bar, in attendance on the Superior Court, was held, on yesterday, to respect to the memory of the distinguished deceased, whose name heads this paragraph. The proceedings will appear to-morrow.

SCUPPERNONG GRAPE IN HARNETT.

Editors of the Sentinel.—I send you a specimen of one of the finest varieties of the Scuppernong grape, cultivated in my vineyard.

There are more than a dozen different varieties of this grape in North Carolina, and as its cultivation is destined to become extensive, the best varieties should be selected.

The grape I send you is confined, principally, to the Cape Fear region, and doubtless propagated from the seed brought from the Albemarle region. The Albemarle grape is much smaller and has a thicker skin than the Cape Fear. The Cape Fear is a superior grape in many particulars. I have both kinds in cultivation, and will, during the coming winter, cut down the Albemarle grape and plant the Cape Fear. This grape will hang on the vine, when ripe, until it dries up. This is a decided advantage to the wine maker. The Albemarle grape will fall off as soon as it is ripe.

Very Respectfully,
C. H. COFFIELD.

We acknowledge our indebtedness to our friend C. for the grapes. They were very large and delicious. The only complaint we have to make, is, that we are not near enough to Mr. Coffield's vineyard to get enough of them. But we cannot entirely agree with Mr. C. The Senior was raised on the Albemarle and knows all about Scuppernong grapes. Those sent us by Mr. C. reminded us more of the old Scuppernong grape we used to eat, when a boy, than any we have met with since we have been in the up country. The Scuppernong grape in the lower Counties, and especially on the Albermarle, when cultivated with any care, is large, very sweet, very juicy and thin-skinned. It will also dry on the vine, except during very wet seasons, and will produce more wine, and make better wine, if rightly made, than any grape we have seen.

We have observed, however, that when the vineyard is not properly attended to, it declines in size and the skin grows thicker as the vine grows older. All the Scuppernong grapes we have seen in the up-country are of the character alluded to by Mr. C. It appears, when propagated from the cuttings or the young vine, as they are generally transplanted from the low country to the up-country, the grape becomes smaller, the acidity becomes more perceptible and the skin grows thicker. This we have thought may be due to the change of climate, but is mostly owing to the stiff and sterile soil in which they are planted and the neglect to cultivate properly the vine. We judge the Cape Fear grape has become freer from those objections, because they have been better cared for, and the soil on the Cape Fear is better adapted to them, than the red stiff soil of the up-country.—It would be well, however, for those designing to plant young vineyards, to get their cuttings from the Cape Fear variety of Mr. Coffield.

THE TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.—A telegram from Washington to Bennett's Herald says: "The opinion is expressed that, allowing Davis will appear, the trial will be shirked by the Government, and the prisoner will again be set at liberty on bail. There is reason, however, to contradict such an erroneous impression. Indications lead to the belief that the trial will be proceeded with and a mass of the most important events connected with the history of the rebellion disclosed. The counsel for defence will demand a trial, and if the Government urge as an excuse 'not ready,' the court will express its intention to remain in session a sufficient time to prepare; failing in this, a nolle prosequi will then be entered, by which the discharge of the prisoner may be effected. The latter is not likely, and the trial, which the nation at large demands, will be proceeded with. Davis can scarcely be convicted. With Chase on the bench, and Davis in the prisoner's box, and the right of secession in question, a drama of great national interest will be presented, in which the principal actors will have to study well their parts."

Mr. Alexander T. Stewart, the New York dry goods merchant, instead of being dead as reported, has just been made the recipient of a public reception in his native town in Ireland.

TO THE COLORED BAPTISTS of North Carolina.

IT has been deemed proper to call upon you to send delegates to a meeting to be held with the first African Church in Goldsboro', on Friday before the 3rd Sunday in October, for the purpose of organizing a general association of the colored Baptists of this State. Each Church composed of colored Baptists, and every Church that has a colored membership, are requested to send two delegates to this meeting. We deem it unnecessary, dear brethren, to do more than to call your attention to the importance of some such organization as we propose forming. We need it for the improvement of our minds; and the disseminating throughout the State of the time-honored principles of our beloved Church.

VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,
Comprising the following great Freight Routes:
THE POWHATAN
Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,
PETERSBURG AND WELDON,
RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA.
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Summerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risks is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

For insurance transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "Via Petersburg."

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last mentioned points freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINTER Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.
Also, the largest and most varied stock of
CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,
LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.
Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,50 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.
Ladies' Serged Balmorals from $1 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

THE SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1867.

RING THE BELL SOFTLY.

Some one has gone from this strange world of ours,
No more to gather its thorns with its flowers,
No more to linger where sunbeams must fade—
Where, on all beauty, death's fingers are laid;
Weary with mingling life's bitter and sweet,
Weary with parting and never to meet,
Some one has gone to the bright golden shore—
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!

Some one is resting from sorrow and sin,
Happy where earth's conflicts enter not in;
Joyous as birds, when the morning is bright,
When the sweet sunbeams have brought us their light;
Weary with sowing and never to reap,
Weary with labor and wel coming sleep—
Some one's departed to Heaven's bright shore—
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!
Ring the bell softly—there's crape on the door!

Angels were anxiously longing to meet
One who walks with them in Heaven's bright street;
Loved ones have whispered that some one is blest,
Free from earth's trials, and taking sweet rest.
Yes! there is one more in angelic bliss—
One less to cherish, and one less to kiss;
One more departed to Heaven's bright shore.
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!

HOW "SUT" DOSED HIS DOG.

When I wer a boy, and my legs not long er than John Wentworth's, dad fotched home a durned wurthless, mangy, flea-bitten, gray, old fox houn, good for nothing but to swaller up what orter lined the bowels ov us brats. Well, I naturally took a distaste to him, and had a sort of hankerin arter hurtin his feelins and discumfurtin by him every time dad's back were turned. This sorter keep a big skeer sellers afore his eye, and a orful yell ready to pour out the fust moshun he seed me make. So he larnt ta swaller things as he run, and sellers kept his laigs well onder himself, for he never knowed how soon he might want to use em in totin his infernal carcus beyond the reach of flyin rock. He knowed the whiz of a rock in moshun, well, and he never stopped to see who flung it, but jist let head fly open tu gin a howl room to cum, and sat his laigs a gwin the way his nose happened to be a pintin. He'd shy round every rock he seed in the road, for he looked upon it as a calamity tu cum arter him sum day. I tell you, Georgy, that runnin am the greatest invenshun ou yearth, when used keerfully. Whar'd I a bin by this time, ef I hadn't relyed on these ere laigs? D'ye see em? Don't they mind you ov a par ov compusses made tu divide a mile inter quarters? They'll do.

Well, one day, I tuck a pig's bladder, ni ontu the size ov a duck's alg, and filled it with powder and corked it up with a piece ov spunk, rolled it up in a thin skulp of meat and sot the spunk afire, and flung it out; he swallowed it a at jerk, and so intu gittin away for doin it. I hearn a noise like bustin sumthin, and his tail lit on top ov my hat. His hed were away down the hill and hed tuck a deth hold onter a root. His forelegs wer fifty feet up the road makin runnin moshuns, and his hine ones a straddil ov a fence, Es to the dog hisself, as a dog, I never seed him agin. Well, dad, durn his onsanctified soul, flung five or six hundred onder my shurt with the dried skin ov a bull's tail, and gin me the remainder next day with a waggin whip what he borrowed from a feller while he wur a watering his hosses; the waggoner got sorry fur me, and hollered tu me tu tirn my leg gin and squallin inter fustrate runnin which I emejately did, thanks tu these ere ham strings, and the last lick missed me about ten feet.—Sut Lovengood's Revelations.

A retired sea captain, who had made the tour of continental Europe and the Holy Land, was asked how he was impressed by his visit to Jerusalem. "Jerusalem," said he, "is the meanest place I ever visited!—There is not a drop of liquor in the whole town fit to drink."

COTTON GIN HORSE POWERS.

WE BEG LEAVE TO INVITE THE ATTENTION OF COTTON PLANTERS TO OUR

IMPROVED EIGHT-FEET STATIONARY POWER.

FOR

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hoon, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * * *

It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 12 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable—do not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully,
WM. R. HOOD.

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

AND

GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORT and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

Daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 south Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

JAS. McCARRICK,
Trace Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessic.

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State bear Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press at work at Mr P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.

PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.
Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 3. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such state by the commanding general, giving representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the districts.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as hereinbefore specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as therein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and to agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE

Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing

LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench," which, being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage ca
